

Herbal Cockroach repellent (100% Natural)

More than 3,700 known species of cockroaches are found throughout the world and in most cases cockroaches grows where the food is available. In domestic, the cockroach is considered as nuisance and numbers of chemicals are available to kill the cockroach and this chemical having certain toxic effects. The developed herbal cockroach repellent (100% natural) having certain advantages:-

1. Herbal origin and considered safe.
2. Effective for 7 days after single application.
3. Stable for 2 years
4. The formulation can be sprayed, in the food stored area also.
5. Safe for pets and other domestic animals.
6. Available in the form of granules, spray or gel.